Granite

When all else fails, the Balconera with in-built Self Watering System gives you this level of perfection every time and is easy to re-plant each season.

The first balcony planter with interchangeable liners.

Also available as gift boxed sets the Balconera planters come in two useful sizes, 50 and 80 cm (20" and 32"). The BALCONERA goes far beyond all traditional balcony planters in form and function. It combines robust strength with a structured exterior that is impervious to impacts, sun, and weather.

The wicker look gives it Mediterranean charm and a lightness that lets it coordinate perfectly with any outdoor furnishing. The BALCONERA is supplied with the self watering sub-irrigation system, which makes plant care simplicity itself.

Self Watering Balconera (mocha) – Rosa

Special features of the Balconera

- Robust surface. The impact-resistant Cottage structure stands up to the elements.
- Dependable water supply. BALCONERA has an integrated water reservoir that reliably provides your plants with water even on hot days.
- Complete watering control. The water level indicator always shows you when your plant needs water.
- Easy to plant. First mount BALCONERA, then lift the pre-planted interchangeable liners into the balcony box with ease. No more heavy lifting of bulky potted balcony boxes.

- Perfect for overwintering. Move your plants in their plant liners to a suitable location with sufficient light for the winter – and decorate your BALCONERA with branches and twigs, for example
- Unique optional fitting bracket hidden from view for mounting on balconies, railings and walls
